serve to embolden perpetrators of mass human rights violations, who already feel as though they are untouchable men and women can suffer from a condition as they get old, called oestrogen dominance